

Child Voice online

Discover strategies to guide your child's journey towards independence.

Led by experienced parent-peer facilitators, this evidence-based program focuses on enhancing your role in your child's education and collaboration with educators.

Through our Child Voice model, you'll foster a transition from parent-led decisions to enabling your child's decision-making, using their strengths.

Join the program and you will learn about

- Taking a proactive role in your child's Individual Education Plan (IEP) development
- Getting a better outcome by working in partnership with your child's educators
- Coaching your child to use their strengths to achieve goals
- Building a goal-builder dashboard
- Utilizing the Child Voice model to transition from parent-led choices to fostering independent decision-making
