

Nurturing opportunities for children's independence

Let's explore different ways of setting a strong foundation for the future

Becoming independent is a part of growing up. How can we encourage community participation for children with a developmental delay, disability or neurodiverse diagnosis?

This workshop focuses on practical ways that parents can nurture their child's independence and create a strong foundation for the future

Come along to explore:

- Promoting community engagement from an early age
- Using family and community supports and therapies for good outcomes
- Navigating challenges and advocating for inclusion.
- We will also provide a comprehensive list of inclusive activities for preschool aged children and introduce our School & Life program that supports children up to 8 years.

Cost
Free
